Cllr Audrey Buckley: Proudly Serving Crosshaven and the Carrigaline Municipal District

My name is Audrey Buckley, and I was honoured to be elected as a local councillor in 2019, a proud and historic moment for the Crosshaven area, which had not had a locally elected representative in nearly 50 years.

I am the only councillor living locally, I am delighted to be able to have a Seat at the Table and represent the Crosshaven area. I also serve the wider Carrigaline Municipal District, including Carrigaline MD, Ringaskiddy, Minane Bridge, Passage West, and Ballinhassig, areas. Being deeply rooted in the community allows me to bring local voices directly to the council, ensuring that our unique needs and concerns are heard and acted upon.

Many community members know me through my long-term involvement in Crosshaven Tidy Towns and the Development Committee, where I have volunteered for over 20 years and served as chairperson for at least 14 years. Community engagement has always been at the heart of my work. I believe that when people come together to care for their environment and neighbours, it creates a sense of pride and belonging that strengthens the fabric of our society.

As a returning immigrant from the USA, I understand the importance of community support — knowing your neighbours, volunteering, and working together for the greater good. Volunteerism is more than just service; it instils civic pride and a shared responsibility that helps keep our towns and villages vibrant and welcoming.

A shining example of this is the Templebreedy SOS group, whose work began with goats and has blossomed into a nationally recognised community effort. Their success highlights how grassroots initiatives, fuelled by passion and teamwork, can transform a community in ways few would have imagined.

Continued:

When I entered politics, I had little experience, and I quickly realised how challenging and, at times, isolating public life can be — especially for women. I have been fortunate to have the mentorship of now-TD Seamus McGrath, whose guidance has been invaluable. Being part of a strong, supportive team makes all the difference in facing the challenges of political life.

That’s why I proudly support the #SeeHerElected initiative, which encourages and empowers more women to enter politics. Visibility, mentorship, and support are crucial to ensuring women have the confidence and resources to step forward and lead.

I am here to represent, listen, and work hard for our community. If you have any concerns or would like to discuss local issues, please do not hesitate to contact me at:

Warm regards,
Cllr Audrey Buckley
